Field trips:

Proper procedure will always be followed to ensure the safety of your child on and off the school premises. Beamton Montessori does not take any responsibility/liability which may incur during field trips either around or outside the school facility. There will be proper consent forms for all parents to complete beforehand. Common outdoor activities are fire drills held once a month and a short walk and play to nearby community playground (Jensen Park) during summer season. The adult-child ratio will be considerably observed. Transportation is not provided by the program in any types of field trips.
